MOTHER TESTIFIES AGAINST DAUGHTER

the Party Will Enter Allegation Is That Latter Is Unfit to Retain Custody of Children.

The case of Lola Montie Ahlbom against Oscar W Ahlbom, In which the husband is seeking custody of the minor children on the ground that his wife is an improper person, occupied two hours at the divorce matinee before Judge C. W. Morse yesterday. Half a dozen witnesses were called on either side and evidence of a highly sensational sort was offered.

Prior to his wife's suit for divorce, Ahlbom filed suit against Earl Smith for $1000$ damages for altenation of his wife's affections. This suit is still pending. Yesterday Ahlbom submitted an affidavit in support of his contention for custody of the children, declaring his wife to be unfit morally to raise the children and naming Smith as the man in the case. Smith himself was on hand as a witness for Mrs. Ahlbom, but was not called, the case being continued one week for further hearing.

Mrs. Ahlbom's mother, an aged woman, testified against her daughter, in support of the husband's contention.

The plaintiff having failed to prove that he had established legal residence within the county, the case of Johanna P. Earnest against Jesse F. Earnest was dismissed.

Daisy Harris was given an interlocutory decree of divorce from William Harris, custody of three minor children and $50 monthly alimony.

Sarah A. Seddon was given a decree from Thomas J. Seddon by default and $50 monthly alimony.

Sarah A. Seddon was given a decree from Thomas J. Seddon by default and $50 monthly alimony.

Sarah A. Seddon was given a decree from Trank H. Sollis on the ground of intoxication. She testified that he had taken to drink soon after the marriage and had drunk continually since.

A tale of cruelty won a decree for Alice Yardas from Joseph Yardas.

SALOON MAN WINS IN BATTLE WITH BANDITS

SEATTLE, Oct. 3 .- J. L. Muldoon, SEATTLE, Oct. 3.—J. L. Muldoon, a saloonkeeper, is in a hospital with his arm broken by a bullet; Carl Strobach, who tried to hold up Muldoon's saloon last night, is in the morgue, and the police are hunting for a second robber supposed to be wounded.

Muldoon was playing cards with two companious when robbers entered from consiste doors. Instead of obeying a opposite doors. Instead of obeying a command to hold up his hands, he drew a revolver and opened fire. The robbers returned the fusiliade, but Mul-doon was the better marksman and soon put the pair to flight. Strobach's bullet-riddled body found in the street some time later. The saloonman is certain the other robber was desperately wounded. Muldoon's companions of the card game found safety under the table while the fight was on.

RISK THEIR LIVES FOR $70 IN PENNIES

LITTLE ROCK; Ark., Oct. 3.—Holding the residents of Fulton at bay to-day, six bandits robbed the bank of day six bandits robbed the bank of $70 in pennies, after vainly trying to open the inner doors of the safe. City Marshal Tom Logan of Fulton was shot and seriously wounded. The robbers used a citizen whom they had captured to shield them from bullets as they ran away.

Posses with bloodhunds are scouring the country in pursuit of the bandits. The robbery was similar to that at the First State bank at Dardanelle, Ark., last Wednesday. Before going to the bank the men broke into a bardware store and stole rifles and ammunition.

FEDERAL JUDGE IS REMOVED BY WILSON

WASHINGTON, Oct 3.—President Wilson today removed Judge Cornelius D. Murane, United States district judge at Nome, Alaska. Attorney General McReynolds, by direction of the president, requested the resignation of Judge Murane several weeks ago, and the latter refused to resign until next June. This resulted in the president's summary action. It is said at the department of justice that the removal was made for the good of the service.

mary action. It is said at the department of justice that the removal was made for the good of the service.

There was a general dissatisfaction, it was declared, but no charges had been filed against the judge Judge Murane's four-year term would have expired in December, 1914.

B. S. Hodey, several days ago, resigned, at the request of the attorney general, as United States attorney at Nome.

FATHER CONFESSES TO SAVE DAUGHTER

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2—Bruce B. Kimmis, father of 13-year-old Priscilla Kimmis, whose extensive operations in passing worthless checks led the police to believe that she possessed abnormal precocity as a criminal, confessed today that he had committed the forgeries charged against the child and had directed her throughout.

"She did exactly as I told her," said the father, "without the slightest intimation that she was doing wrong. I made her believe all these transactions were part of my regular business."

Kimmis told the police he had operated in a number of California cities with success, because of the youth and innocent appearance of Priscilia. He is held on a felony charge.

SECRETARY M'ADOO ANSWERS CRITICISM

WASHINGTON. Oct. 3.—Answering criticism of an agreement in the administration currency to the effect that the volume of short-term commercial paper held by the national banks was so small as to make the rediscount provisions of the measure of little value. Secretary McAdoo, in a statement tonight, announced that on August 9 last the national banks held $3,428,955,157 of paper maturing in ninety days or less. These figures, based upon reports to the comptroller of the currency, the secretary said, seemed to disprove the claims of the opponents of the bill.
